Up close...

A lover of the great outdoors, when John is not working you will likely find him at the top of a mountain, having speed hiked up there!

If you need to know anything at all about Bridgeman, General Manager of Manufacturing, John Collingwood, will be able to tell you!

A well respected Senior Manager, John has been with the company for over 18years. He first started at Bridgeman down on the floor as a Sheetmetal Tradesperson and worked his way up through the ranks to Production Manager, Project Manager then Senior Project Manager before transitioning into the role of General Manager in 2021.

Production management of the Bridgeman factory has provided John with a thorough understanding of the manufacturing process including quality control and achieving project deadlines.

“Creating career pathways for Apprentices and Trainees, developing our Futures Program and the fact we currently employ 18 Apprentices gives me the most satisfaction.”

John has a drive to deliver for both Bridgeman and it's clients and his greatest reward comes from the strong customer relationships that he has formed over the years and the benefits it has brought to the company.

He prides himself on being able to develop long-standing relationships with clients and ensures the right outcome is achieved for their specific requirements. Proof of this is their loyalty and repeat business, some of the clients have worked with John for over 10years!

Leading by example he considers himself firm but fair and believes that everyone has a role to play which is critical to the success of Bridgeman.

Over the past 18years, John has developed a strong passion for Bridgeman and it's people. He gets most satisfaction out of creating and implementing career pathways for Apprentices and Trainees.

John knows that the high quality standards and the diversity of products manufactured sets Bridgeman apart from it's competitors.

With John at the helm, Bridgeman's clients can be rest assured that they will continue to receive the high level of customer service and large range of quality products for years to come.

experience that delivers

Now that you know a bit more about me, I'd love to know more about you.
